Waiver for the Los Angeles Police Department's Balancing the Odds 5K Run/Walk and Obstacle Course Race

On September 9, 2012, the Southeast Area Community Police Station of the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) will host their first annual Balancing the Odds 5K Run/Walk and Obstacle Course Race at Dockweiler Beach. The area within LAPD's Southeast Area's jurisdiction is home to 46 gangs and over 10,000 documented gang members, making it a very challenging area to police. LAPD's Jeopardy Program focuses on mentoring local youth, teaching them safe lifestyle habits and promoting scholastic achievement. The program is sponsoring this event to promote healthy lifestyles among the youth and families they serve.

I THEREFORE, MOVE THAT THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Waive the permit fee of $200, 15% of the gross receipts estimated at $32,500, parking for 250 volunteers at an estimated cost of $2,500, and reduce parking fees for 1,000 participants to $5 per vehicle at an estimated cost of $5,000, excluding the cost of liability insurance, at Dockweiler Beach for the Los Angeles Police Department's "Balancing the Odds 5K Run/Walk and Obstacle Course Race" on September 9, 2012.
